

DESCRIPTION

The MT-S0601 is a matching transformer for the ES, T-550 and T-650 series speakers.

SPECIFICATIONS

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                            |
|-------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Rated Input Power | 60 W                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Input Impedance   | 100 V line: 170 $\Omega$ (60 W), 330 $\Omega$ (30 W), 670 $\Omega$ (15 W)70 V line: 83 $\Omega$ (60 W), 170 $\Omega$ (30 W), 330 $\Omega$ (15 W), 670 $\Omega$ (7.5 W) |
| Output Impedance  | 8 $\Omega$                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Weight            | 1.2 kg                                                                                                                                                                     |

APPEARANCE

UNIT:mm SCALE:1/2